MOUNT CLARE

MT. CLARE, Aug. 10.—At the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society at the home of Mrs. J. T. Coffman Thursday it was decided to use a sufficient amount of the funds in its treasury to concrete all the bare space in front of the church, which has been a source of much mud in wet weather. The society's visiting guests were Mrs. Taylor Richmond, of Fairmont, and Miss Ada Young, of Baltimore, who is spending her vacation here, a guest of Mrs. J. M. Matheny.

The venerable Granville Knight, who has been very ill for some time, is still reported to be in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mills are both on the sick list.

Mrs. Henry Bassel is convalescent after an illness of several weeks duration.

The Rev. Mr. Tunie, of near Fairmont, visited the Rev. E. G. Vincent Sunday evening and filled the pulpit for the Rev. H. B. Workman in the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Rev. Mr. Workman will begin a series of revival meetings at Green Hill Wednesday evening.

C. E. Davison returned Saturday from a week's vacation spent at Atlantic City. He reports the weather as being uncomfortably cold for bathing purposes.

Mrs. Taylor Richmond, who was a guest of Mrs. C. E. Davison for several days, returned to her home at Fairmont Saturday.

Several of our people took in the excursion to Richmond Sunday.

Several men are at work on the large Odd Fellows' hall this week, and it is fast assuming tangible form. The first story will be used as a play house, being provided with a fourteen-foot stage and an inclined floor.

Among those who attended the festival given at the Booth school house Saturday night were the Misses Mabel and Sybil Workman, Miss Ida Bassel, Miss Mildred Davison and Messrs Gail Cork, Carl Meredith and Keston Workman.

Tomato Club Song

(Tune Dixie)

The Tomato Club is a girls' organization
By county, state and the nation,
Can away, can away, our club girls,
To make us wise and healthy and say
And learn to work as well as play,
Can away, can away, our club girls.

(Chorus)

Then, hurrah for the Southern G. O. C., hurrah hurrah!
For the G. O. C. we pledge our hand,
Head, heart and health at her command,
We'll try, we'll try, we'll try to make best better.

We plant our seed in the month of March,
Before the sun begins to parch,
Plant away, plant away, our club girls
From the hotbed to the field we take it,
Ground as rich as we can make it,
Plant away, plant away, our club girls.

When the fruits are ripe we begin our canning
First result of all our planting,
Can away, can away, our club girls,
When the cans are sold and the prizes given,
We receive the reward for which we've striven,
Can away, can away, our club girls.

A canner can can things that she can,
But a canner can't can a can, now can she?
Can away, can away, our club girls,
No a canner can't can a can, now can she?
But a farmer can farm a farm, now can't he?
Farm away, farm away, our club boys.

Now, why can't a farmer and canner together,
Combining their talents find out just whether,
Can away, can away, our club girls,
Both farmer and canner make more in life
Then by trying to farm without any wife
Can away, can away, our club girls.

(Music Repeats)

For a wife is essential and best be the man,
Who while farming his farm get a wife that can can,
Can away, can away, our club girls.

NOT GUILTY

Of Taking $15 from Customer is Nathan Lassing, Clerk in West Pike Street Store.

Gus Cortus, an employee of the tin plate plant, failed to prove that Nathan Lassing, a clerk in a West Pike street clothing store, had taken $15 from him when he purchased several articles in the store Saturday night and Magistrate Jackson V. Carter dismissed the warrant against Lassing at the close of a trial held in his court Monday evening.

Cortus alleged that he made a purchase in the store in which Lassing worked and that in paying for the goods bought he handed Lassing a $20 bill. When Lassing returned with his change, Cortus says, he laid it on a counter and then distracted his attention and grabbed the money. When Cortus demanded his change Lassing told him he had given it to him.

At the trial Monday evening about the only thing that Cortus was sure of was that he was out the $15. He could not produce any evidence that Lassing had taken the money and the magistrate dismissed the warrant.

Operation Not Needed

Mrs. W. A. Barnes, who lives in Ballard, Calif., has sent to the Flint Laboratories a very strong endorsement of Fritula and Traxe. In her letter she says:

"Doctors say gall-stones cannot be cured without an operation, costing much money as well as unnecessary suffering. I am cured, I know, and this is proof positive, and my friends know that such is the case."

Fritula is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardest particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested state in an easy, natural manner. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxe is a splendid tonic which acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation. Traxe should be taken three or four times a day following a dose of Fritula to strengthen and restore the weakened, run-down system. For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fritula and Traxe through leading drug stores. In Clarksburg they can be obtained at
